NOTES

1. The published Cremation Fees remain the same for both Residents* and Non-residents of Eastbourne.
2. Published Burial Fees apply to any person whose main residence was in the Borough of Eastbourne for at least six months prior to death or who was residing full time at their main residence in the Borough at the time the exclusive Right of Burial was purchased by them.
3. Double Fees apply to any person requiring full burial but who were not resident in a main residence in the Borough at the time of death unless, the Exclusive Right of Burial was purchased by them when they were resident in a main residence.
4. Non-residents who have been cremated at Eastbourne Crematorium but who wish their cremated remains to be buried in either of our cemeteries will not be charged double fees but an additional 50% of the residents fees as published within this list.
5. In the case of babies or children, double fees will apply where neither parent is a resident of Eastbourne.
6. In the event of two interments taking place in the same grave at the same time, only one interment fee will apply.

* Resident – means a person who paid Full Council Tax to Eastbourne Borough Council prior to his/her death.

 Main Residence is the residence at which the deceased paid Full Council Tax to Eastbourne Borough Council and in which the person resided full time prior to death. In the case of children under the age of 18 years, the residence at which they and their parents resided full time prior to their death.
